Illinois Equity in Attainment Initiative

Joe Saucedo, Equity Program Manager

Our Mission

The Partnership for College Completion (PCC) champions policies, practices, and systems that increase college completion and eliminate degree completion disparities for low-income, first generation, and students of color in Illinois – particularly Black and Latinx students.

Our Work

PCC advances solutions that address historic inequities in our higher education system

Public Policy

We advocate for bold equity-centered policies that improve college access and affordability and address structural barriers to persistence and completion.

College and University Partnerships

We partner with Illinois colleges and universities to provide support as they develop and deploy equity-centered strategies on campus.

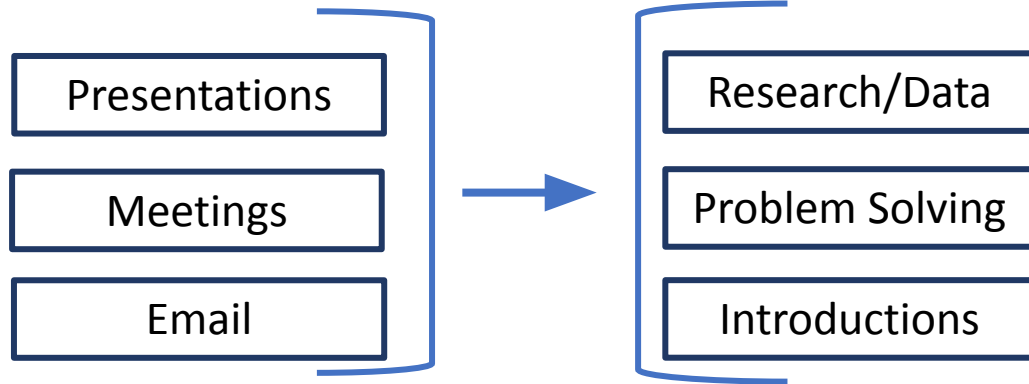

Research and Data

We use data and research to advance both transformational equity change on college and universities campuses and through state policy efforts in Illinois.

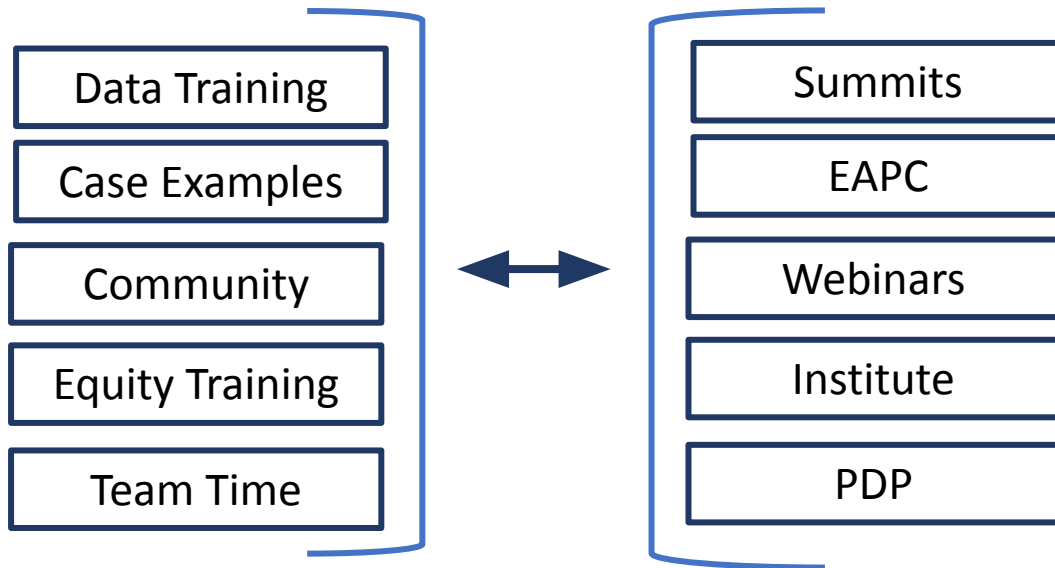

Ongoing Coaching and Guidance

Provide ILEA partners with individualized resources to aid them in eliminating gaps in degree completion on their campus.

How does coaching inform programs?

Connect ILEA partners to existing programs that are aligned with their needs and create programs accordingly.

Postsecondary Data Partnership

PDP Dashboard Metrics

Achieve earlier identification of student populations that would benefit from intervention, using the PDP's early momentum indicators. Watch trends for your current cohort of students as they progress through your institution and if they move on to others. With metrics based on a national metrics framework built from a decade of data and insights, the PDP dashboards can help your institution transform success metrics into actual success.

Gateway Course Completion. Discover early whether your students are on track, using PDP metrics on math and English gateway course completion rates.

Credit Accumulation Rate. Determine what proportion of your students are progressing toward credential completion. See which students are earning sufficient credits in their first year and which need more support.

Credit Completion Ratio. Find out how successful students are at completing the credits they attempt in their first academic year. This is a leading indicator of a student's progress toward completion of a credential.

Retention and Persistence. Get a fuller picture of your students' achievements. Success is measured not only by the number of students who complete their studies on your campus (retention) but also by the number who continue their education elsewhere (persistence). The PDP applies comprehensive enrollment and degree data from the National Student Clearinghouse to tell you about student outcomes on your campus and beyond.

 - Courses did not earn college credit towards a degree
 - Mathematics
 - MATH 108, MATH 109
 - English
 - ENGL 102
 - Literacy Skills
 - LTRE 100

Guiding Principles

- Use a collaborative and data-informed approach
- Use multiple measures to assess readiness and placement
- Ensure equitable access to college level courses
- Implement comprehensive and integrated support programs for students
- Offer instructional support for faculty
- Assess and improve

Process for reform

Collaborative, inclusive, student-centric

- Process led by Vice Provost for Academic Affairs
- Included Associate Deans, Chairs and Faculty from relevant departments

Placement and approach vetted widely

Mathematics

- Implemented ALEKS placement exam
 - Provides tutorials for skill review
 - Allows benchmarking for placement
- ILEA grant to support supplemental instruction and tutoring
- Continual refinement of placement cutoffs
- Exploring math pathways based on expected major

Literacy
